

Twin Falls Sandwich Company is featuring Vegan Soups

Twin Falls, ID – The Twin Falls Sandwich Company is now featuring vegan soups on Wednesdays and Saturdays from Jill Skeem’s cookbook, Comfort Food Gets a Vegan Makeover. Jill is a local macrobiotic health counselor and co-host of Top Story on 1310am KLIX and recently launched her new cookbook.

This cookbook gives a simple vegan twist to your favorite comfort food soups, such as split pea, cream of tomato, chicken soup, corn chowder, butternut squash, chili and more.

“I wanted to help local businesses promote their products and with more people requesting vegan items, I thought Jill’s soups would be a great addition to our menu.” said Shane Cook, owner of the Twin Falls Sandwich Company. “You won’t believe how delicious they are and you don’t miss any butter, cream or cheese. We have received very positive responses to Jill’s soups.”

The Twin Falls Sandwich Company is located at 128 Main Ave. N in Twin Falls, ID. Comfort Food Gets a Vegan Makeover is also being sold there for $18 plus tax.
